

MRS. LOTHROP DIES

Funeral of Surgeon's Wife Will Be Held Thursday.

Private funeral services for Mrs. Ella Chapin Lothrop, wife of Dr. Earl P. Lothrop, Buffalo surgeon, will be held in her home, 187 Bryant street, at 2 P. M., Thursday, with Dr. Samuel V. V. Holmes, minister of Westminster Presbyterian church, officiating. Burial will be in Forest Lawn cemetery.

Mrs. Lothrop, prominent clubwoman, died Monday afternoon in Millard Fillmore hospital following an operation.

Born in Perry in 1870, Mrs. Lothrop came to Buffalo with her parents during her childhood and attended the Central high school here and later Wellesley college. In 1900 she was married to Dr. Lothrop, who, with a daughter, Mrs. Thomas Mitchell, and two grandchildren, Mrs. Thomas L. and Ellen Ann Mitchell, survive.

Mrs. Lothrop was a member of the Twentieth Century club, Wellesley club, College club and several charity organizations.
